Prayer for the New School Year

Bless my lessons every one Bless each school time task begun
If I read or write or spell
Let me learn each lesson

When I'm offered drugs or _____ Or alcohol that makes one grope May I firmly answer " NO
I know a better way to go!

When I'm working with my _____ When I study far off lands When I draw or paint or _____ Bless me Lord, in everything.

Work out the words that are missing from the poem from the picture clues.

And so, dear Lord, look after me
And may my school year truly ____ A time to learn,
a time to grow,
And wisdom
may I ever show.

Please keep my _____ and body strong

I want to see the right from wrong
And may I always choose the right Be gentle, kind and never _____.

Find out what the Bible says about being different from the world.

Start at the letter D and take every 5th letter around the oval, until you have used all the letters in the outside oval, then move to the inner oval with the letter N and continue in the same way until all the letters are used up. The * counts as a letter but shows where a sentence ends and a new one starts. You will have to separate the letters into words.
You can check your answer in
